JT: JJJ In sports news. Not satisfied with hosting The Chase and appearing in Dr. Who, the former Coronation Street actor and footballer Bradley Walsh, has signed to play for Tranmere Rovers. Walsh played for Tranmere as a schoolboy and he says he is looking forward to his Rovers Return. JJJ And now back to our main story and Suzanne Write has an exclusive interview with the two latest golden ticket winners.

Enter Suzanne Write, Xavier Box and Paris Pepper with their fathers.

SW: Yes Jimmy I have the latest lucky winners with me. Xavier Box and Paris Pepper. (To Xavier) Xavier can you tell me what you were doing when you found the ticket?

Xavier: (Does not look up from his computer game) I was about to take a penalty for England in the semi final of the world cup.

SW: Really?

Brian Box: No he was playing FIFA, he likes video games you see.

SW: So I can see. He must be very excited Mr. Box.

Brian Box: Please call me Brian.

SW: I'd rather not.

Brian Box: Oh, yes he is very excited indeed.

SW: It's hard to tell. All the winners can take someone to the factory with them, who is Xavier taking, I presume it won't be a girlfriend?

Brian Box: No, I am going with him.

Paris: (Interrupts) Can we talk about me now?

SW: Of course. (To audience) Many of you will probably know Paris Pepper from the BBC 3 series "Daddy I've Already Got a Pony, Now I Want a Porsche." Now she is the other lucky winner.
