

THIS PART IS FOR SLUGWORTH

(Enter Slugworth)

Slugworth: (To audience) Once upon a time this was a factory, full of a joyful workforce working under. The marvellous, creative, some say magical Mr Wonder. Producing sweets and chocolates beyond your wildest dreams. It was a wonderful life, or so it seemed. Now the factory is shut up behind these gates so high. And I am here to tell you why. I am Slugworth, once the great man's assistant and he treated me just like a son. Whatever he asked of me he knew it would be done. But my interest in making sweets, and especially milk chocolate, faded and died. I am afraid I went over to the dark side. You see I am a 'born villain' and in exchange for money I gave away. Mr. Wonder's secrets to Mr Cadburay. From then till now the factory gates have stayed closed. And no one sees who comes and goes. Mr Wonder has not been seen for years and yet here is the mystery. The factory now produces even better confectionery.

Paperboy: (Off stage) Read all about it!

Slugworth: Ah the news boy I'll wait and see what he has to say. Because I missed Newsround on CBBC today.
Paperboy enters.

Paperboy: (Shouting) Breaking news, Wonder factory to open gates. Five golden tickets hidden in Wonder chocolate bars. Lucky golden ticket holders to tour factory. Fantastic mystery prize for one at the end of the tour.

Paperboy exits

Slugworth: Ah, at last, a chance to steal more secrets from inside the factory. But I'd be recognised if I went in, I'll have to find someone who can steal them for me. Ha ha ha.
